FRIENDS OF THE RARE BOOK ROOM
OF THE LIBRARY OF
THE NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE

THE Rare Book Room at the Library of The New York Academy of Medicine houses valuable collections of interest to the professions as well as to the general public. Among the many items which may be viewed daily by visitors are:

The Edwin Smith Surgical Papyrus, about 4,000 years old.

A letter to his brother from Benjamin Franklin, concerning a silver catheter of his own invention, Philadelphia, 1752.

An outstanding collection of public health proclamations from the 16th to the 19th centuries, pertaining chiefly to epidemics and measures adopted to control them.

A large part of the Rare Book Room's priceless collection of books, pamphlets, manuscripts, letters and autographs by famous medical men, and many of the "collectors' items" of medical instruments and related objects have been acquired by purchase from dealers or from private sources. Other historical items from the medical field have come to us by donations or bequests from Academy Fellows. May we have your interest and support by enrolling you as a Member of the Rare Book Room?
